AMERICAN ECONOMIC AID LINKED WITH PEACE PROGRAM

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, Dec. 15. (A)-President Truman disclosed today that Gen. George C. Marshall's first objective in China will be an end to hostilities between the Nationalists and Communists.

Beyond that the president called for a conference of all Chinese factions to work out a permanent political settlement for unification of the country in a broadened national government

At the same time, in a major policy statement on China, Mr. Truman linked American economic aid with his peace and unity program. He said this country would be prepared to grant credits and loans as China moves "along the lines described."

He based the injection of American diplomacy into the internal affairs of China on the assertion that peace and unity in that nation are essential to peace in the

KEEP APPROACH OPEN FOR MAIL

Rural Deliveries Depend On Easy Access To Mail Boxes

Patrons of rural mail deliveries yesterday were reminded by Escanaba Postmaster Regina Cleary that under postal regulations they are required to keep clear the approaches to their mail boxes so that deliveries can be made without the carrier alighting from his

During the winter months the approaches to mail boxes are often filled in with banks of snow as a result of highway plowing. When this occurs patrons must clear the approaches by hand shoveling if necessary.

Unless approaches are cleared within a reasonable time the delivery by carrier may be withheld temporarily until the approaches have been cleared. Postmaster Cleary said that little difficulty has been encountered by the rural delivery service because of impassable roads due to drifted snow, but the principal trouble is in keeping the approaches to the boxes clear so the carriers will not have to alight to reach the boxes. There are several hundred boxes on each route and it is impossible for the carrier to alight at each box.

Carriers are not required to make deliveries on foot when roads cannot be traveled by their regular conveyance, but they are expected to serve as many of their patrons as possible.

Such training in the schools hits directly at juvenile delinquency, destruction of property and other acts of vandalism, and most important of all the false notion that this is only a "give-me" world. Too many people have come to assume that the world owes them a living, even though they do nothing to help themselves. It is encouraging to note that our schools are endeavoring to eradicate such erroneous views from the youthful minds. The building of character goes hand in hand with the development of good citizenship.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington - Just one year ago this norning the American public got the news -at first heavily censored-that the German army had launched a violent and successful counter-attack. In the battle of the bulge which followed, 60,000 casualties resulted and the tremendous surpluses not piled up in army storehouses throughout the U.S. A. were largely acquired by frantic army orders during those next fateful weeks.

That desperate Nazi last-gasp came within a hair's breadth of succeeding. It did not stop until 20,000 fresh American troops were flown across the Atlantican unheard of operation-and landed almost in the thick of battle.

While mistakes happen in wartime, it is incumbent on the army to clean up the source of those mistakes, especially before saddling the nation with new peacetime militarism. The war department is now waging a fierce campaign not only to swallow the navy, but to adopt peacetime conscription for the first time in history. Beforeathis is done, the same healthy spotlight now focused on Pearl Harbor bungling ought to delve into other errors costly in American lives. Unfortunately the army has long followed a policy of covering up military mistakes, apparently to preserve the reputations of high-ranking generals. Not only the mistakes of World War I, but even some blunders of the civil war still are under lock and key. Furthermore, the army seems to follow an inexplicable policy of promoting many of those who err, while those who were right either get no promotion, or are eased out of the army.

-ARMY FAVORITISM-

In the battle of the bulge, for instance, the one man who consistently and emphatically warned his superiors that the Germans were going to attack was Col. B. Abbott Dickson, chief of intelligence for the second army. Based on interviews with German prisoners, he wrote a report on December 10 1944, six days before the attack warning that it was coming. His report, labelled "No. 37," is in the files of

Staff Is Cut To Three; Price Control Work Featured

The war price rationing board for Delta county located at 1215 Ludington street has been redesignated the price control board and the clerical staff cut to three, in charge of James E. Anderson, price control chief, because of the great cut in recent months of items on the ration list.

Because of the small staff, Mr. Anderson announces that office hours will be from 8 to 5, including Wednesday afternoons.

Industrial and institutional users of sugar are told by Mr. Anderson that after the first of next week all sugar rationing will be handled through the Detroit offices. His office will issue the

10% more than wartime take-home pay refused by UAW-CIO

Before GM workers were called out on strike, the UAW-CIO refused an offer aimed to increase wartime take-home pay by at least 10%. Read the background and ask yourself, does this make sense?

HERE ARE THE SIMPLE FACTS:

1. During the last year of the war, the average General Motors hourly-rate worker earned $56.93 per week.

This is based on actual records of the money paid and the number of people working. To earn this money they worked an average of 45.6 hours per week.

2. The public demand for GM products and services is enough to keep our plants working at the wartime level of 45 to 48 hours weekly.

During the period of shortages, we plan to operate at this rate, barring work stoppages due to causes beyond our control. In fact, some of our plants were working 48 hours a week when the strike was called. The number of people employed when reconversion is completed and our new plants and facilities are in production, will be larger than before the war.

3. General Motors offered to adjust wage rates in line with the cost of living.

Since January 1941, General Motors' wage rates have increased substantially. Before the strike was called, the union was offered a cost-of-living wage adjustment in line with the Government's stabilization policy. The union rejected this offer and called the strike. This offer has finally been determined to amount to an average of 131/2 cents per hour.

4. The UAW-CIO turned down a proposal which would have given the average GM worker $63.44 a week.

Under this offer, the average General Motors hourly-rate worker would have received $63.44 for the same number of hours for which he was paid $56.93 during the war. This is at least 33% more than he would have received in January 1941 if he had worked the same number of hours then. The union rejected the offer. The strike continues. The workers are getting nothing.

5. What does the UAW-CIO want?

Government figures say that the cost of living has gone up 33% since January 1, 1941. As already pointed out, General Motors has offered this much to its workers. But the union insists it wants 30% more than present rates, which are already substantially higher than 1941 rates. Its battle cry is "52 for 40 or fight"-52 hours' pay for 40 hours' work.

It refuses to budge from that demand.

• Furniture Market Attracts Buyers

Grand Rapids, (A)-Although the midwinter market of the Grand Rapids Furniture Exposition Association is not scheduled to open until Jan. 7, exhibitors LemonJuiceRecipe have been advised that many buy. ers will be arriving as early as Jan. 2 and 3 and that early arrival of exhibitors will be "entirely ethical.

Charles F. Campbell, secretary of the association, suggested that exhibitors arrive ahead of the actual starting date "to talk over mutual problems with customers" after learning that many buyers have made hotel reservations for several days before opening day. He emphasized, however, that some exhibits could not possibly be made ready before Jan. 7.

If you suffer from rheumatic, arthritis or neuritis pain, try this simple inexpensive home euclide that thousands are using. Get a package of Ru-Ex Compound, a two-week supply, today. Mix it with a quart of water, add the juice of 4 lemons. It's easy. No trouble at all and pleasant. You need only 3 tablespoontuls two times a day. Often within 48 hours—sometimes overnight—splendid results are obtained. If the pains do not quickly leave and if you do not feel better, return the empty package and Ru-Ex will cost you nothing to try as it is sold by your drugstst under an absolute money-back guarantee. Ru-Ex Compound is for sale and recommended by drug stores everywhere.

A sudden puncture or blowout—and even a new tire can flatten out like a pancake. The wheel may settle ... the car list ... the steering wheel jump from your hand. And the deflated tire and tube may turn crosswise, or pull off the rim, rolling away altogether and throwing your car out of control.

But you will have proven blowout protection when you ride in a 1946 Plymouth, Dodge, De Soto or Chrysler! Blowouts may still occur, of course - but they will be robbed of most of their danger.

An exclusive Chrysler Corporation feature, the Safety-Rim Wheel, makes it practically higher speeds. Because tire and tube remain in place, you slow to a safe, straight stop.

Solidly and tightly the tire stays on the rim. And because the tire does not slip crosswise to the wheel, there is less chance of ruining good rubber.

These Safety-Rim Wheels were put to the most grueling tests-dynamite caps were attached to cars' tires, exploded at 75 miles an hour! And the cars were brought to safe stops under control.

most colorful officer the U.S. Army has ever had. Gen. George Marshall, former chief of staff, declared the Germans feared him more than any other Allied general; his unorthodox tactics forced them to concentrate greater numbers against him than against any other front. His spotless, tailored uniforms, shining helmet, polished boots and pearl-handled pistols were subject to derision from homefront critics but their very audacity was an insult to the enemy. General Patton pioneered in mechanized warfare. As long ago as 1916. Patton as a lieutenant fought Mexican bandit forces under Villa from auto squadrons. During World War I he studied the honors in our own tank corps. As a peacetime post commandant, polo and horse shows took much of his time and built for him a reputation as a "rich man's general." His World War II record proved that false. He drove his men hard, tongue-lashed them into fighting fury; but he never ducked personal danger and his men won the battles. His indiscretion:-slapping a wounded soldier and condoning Nazis in postwar occupation posts-brought public condemnation but his superiors never lost sight of the fact that he was one of the world's greatest fighters.

Shoot Fists And Pass Bottle Instead Of Basketball

No court action has resulted concerning the disorder at the basketball game at the local high school gymnasium Friday evening, but public indignation has been aroused and it is reported that a special session of the board of education will be called to discuss ways and means of avoiding a repetition of the disgraceful affair in which local residents were insulted and manhandled by several youths under the influence of Four young men seated in the balcony toward the close of the game began raising their voices above the din and later began passing a bottle. Spectators near at hand objected and became subject to abuse. As the tipplers' condition became more sodden their abuse become more violent.

With the game over, they continued their threats and when told to quiet down, they started to fight. Two local residents, who were with their wives, were singled out as particular victims. One of these was picked up bodily and slammed against one of the loors. Although not seriously hurt, his face was badly bruised. Other bystanders took a hand and gave the disorderly gang the bums'

Assured For Redskin And Rams Tussle

BY SID FEDER

Cleveland, Dec. 15 (A)—The Cleveland Rams and Washington Redskins tangle tomorrow in professional football's "World Series", with a record National League championship gate already "in" and an all-time top crowd virtually certain.

A week-long off-and-on snow finally stopped today and the weather man picked out the "clear and colder" sign to hang up for the 1:30 p. m. (Eastern Standard Time) kickoff in Cleveland's vast 76,000-seat Municipal stadium.

As a result the gate, which went up to $147,000 today, is expected to ring the bell at $175,000, with more fans.

Ten Bowl Contests And Shrine Charity Tilt Start New Year

BY HAROLD CLAASSEN

New York, Dec. 15 (AP)-Jan. 1 generally is regarded as a day of headaches but there is a new one for the first day of 1946 with eleven football games glamoring for attention.

Ten of the contests are of the Bowl variety with the exception being the twenty-first annual Shrine charity exhibition at San Francisco in which the pick of the players west of the Mississippi river tangle with those from the eastern side.
